The European Youth Parliament,

- A. Taking into account the current security issues such as the refugee crisis, Syrian civil war, annexation of Crimea, and their impact on security of the EU,
- B. Noting that the possible creation of the common European army might lead towards further centralising the EU,
- C. Keeping in mind the huge expenses, which might be connected to creation of the common European army,
- D. Fully aware of possible organisational issues associated with establishment of an army consisting of such a large number of
 1. Establishes the common EU army that would:
 - a) Have a station in each Member State,
 - b) Protect the EU borders in order for the EU citizens to feel safe;
 2. Declares that the EU army will be an organisation of the whole EU and not a single state while the actions of the army would depend on the Council of the European Union;
 3. Urges the Member States to financially support the EU army;
 4. Calls for unification of defence policies between the EU and the Member States;
 5. Recommends having a common training for soldiers in the EU.
